

Krewe of Southern Sisterhood

PRESS RELEASE

St. Petersburg, FL – December 29th, 2003

Krewe of Southern Sisterhood (KSS) is hosting their January gathering at the elegant Music Room at the University of Tampa on Sunday, January 11th. A social time and meeting is from 1:00 to 3:00, followed by a presentation of the play "Victorians Undressed" to 3:30. Krewe of Southern Sisterhood is a social and philanthropic organization founded in 2002, with over 50 current members.

Elegant hats and pearls are worn to each monthly social event, but for this event, costumes of the Victorian Era shall be worn (same costumes for parades and special events). Guests and interested parties are welcome – please call 727-345-1096.

There was an active philanthropic calendar in 2003, including donations to Grace House, The Haven, Stepping Stone, Wonders Foundation Basket Brigade, and Project Heartstrings among others. KSS will continue actively in 2004, under the leadership of Margaret Platt – Philanthropy chair.

The objective of this Krewe is to provide for ladies who embody the Southern ideals of gentility, strength, resolve, initiative, wit and humor, an organization of sisterhood, comradery and support; and a forum for social, community and philanthropic activities. Allison Terrell Mitchell serves as President. Watch for KSS at upcoming parades!

Press and Photographers Welcome. Kindly contact Kathy Heshelow to RSVP or for further information. Telephone: (727) 341-2400.
