Ice Cream Social Held at Joshua House

The Krewe of Southern Sisterhood (KSS) hosted an Ice Cream Social for more than 40 children at Joshua House in Lutz on the afternoon of July 11th. Ice cream, treats and juice were enjoyed by all, and the kids were also given beads to add to the party atmosphere.

Joshua House, a program of the Children's Home Society of Florida, is an emergency shelter for up to 60 abused, abandoned, and neglected children. This safe environment provides structure, stability, love and a place to heal. In the 12 years of service, the safe haven of Joshua House has helped more than 600 children get a new start at life.

The Krewe of Southern Sisterhood is a social and philanthropic organization of the Tampa Bay region. The objective is to provide for ladies who embody the Southern ideals of gentility, strength, comradery, wit and humor.
