

Krewe of Southern Sisterhood

PRESS RELEASE

St. Petersburg, FL – July 3rd, 2004

Krewe of Southern Sisterhood (KSS), one of the youngest Krewes of Tampa Bay, is a social and philanthropic organization with over 50 current members. The objective of this Krewe is to provide for ladies who embody the Southern ideals of gentility, strength, comradery, wit and humor. It is a forum for social, community and philanthropic activities, with an active philanthropic schedule.

On Sunday, July 11th, KSS shall be holding an ice cream social with the children at Joshua House in Tampa (3:30 p.m.). Joshua House, a program of the Children's Home Society of Florida, is an emergency shelter for 60 abused, abandoned, and neglected children. This safe environment provides structure, stability, love and a place to heal. In the 12 years of service, Joshua House has helped more than 600 children get a new start at life.

Ladies interested in attending the next monthly meeting (held before the social) or in knowing more about the Krewe of Southern Sisterhood may contact Kathy Heshelow at 727-341-2400 or email kreweofsouthernsisterhood@yahoo.com.

Press and Photographers Welcome (some restrictions on photography). Kindly contact Kathy Heshelow for further information. Telephone: (727) 341-2400.

Web site - <http://www.kreweofsouthernsisterhood.com>

Kathy Heshelow, Publicity
556 Park Street South
St. Petersburg FL 33707
Tel (727) 341-2400 Fax (727) 343-6090